Advantage Credit President Resigns

September 1, 2006 - Pensacola, FL — Advantage Credit International announces the resignation of Ron Litt, who served as the company's president.

His resignation is effective September 1, 2006. Litt leaves Advantage Credit to return to Texas.

"There are a number of opportunities I am considering," Litt said.

"Although I was born in New York, I spent over 25 years in Texas. It is home."

In his year as president, Litt introduced many changes including a National Accounts Office to address the special needs of larger customers and to focus on helping customers close more loans.

Advantage Credit's CEO Mark Simms stated, "We appreciate Ron's desire to return to his family and friends and wish him well."
